DRAINOLOGY™

LINKING SCIENCE WITH PRACTICE

ESTS 2026 lunch symposium

Delivering High-Value Thoracic Surgery: Outcomes, Processes, and Quality Improvement

Join the Drainology & Medela lunch symposium at the 2026 ESTS Annual Meeting. Get inspired by three leading speakers and translate evidence, data and experience into real-world practice change.

Chair: Eric Lim, UK

8 June, 12:30–13:30

Room MC3, level -1

Lunch provided

Transforming data and pathway into value-based clinical care

Eric Lim, UK

Evaluating baseline of quality improvement and variability of care

Andrea Billè, UK

Creating standardized drain management pathways

Lars Geenen, Netherlands

Scan to find more details about the symposium and speakers

This session is not included in the main event's CME/CPD credits.

Sponsored by medela

Drainology is an initiative launched, managed, funded and represented by Medela, dedicated to establish a medical and surgical discipline focused on chest drainage and providing a scientific platform to improve patient care.